> Two Non-Executive Directors

Sugar Research Australia Limited (SRA), Australia's leading Sugar Industry Research Organisation, is seeking to appoint two Non-Executive Directors to join its board.

SRA is an industry-owned company which invests in and manages a portfolio of research, development and extension projects that drive productivity, profitability, and sustainability for the Australian sugarcane industry.

SRA is governed by a skills-based board of seven directors, a majority of whom must be independent. The role of the board includes to approve strategic and operating plans, review the company's performance against plans, and seek advice and recommendations from the SRA Research Funding Panel for contestable investment of the SRA Research Funding Pool.

The board is required to have a balance of skills across a number of key selection criteria. For the current vacancies, the Director Selection Committee is seeking experienced directors with expertise and knowledge in:

1. National and International Research and Development, technology, technology transfer, commercialisation, and adoption
2. Administration, prioritisation, oversight, monitoring of Research and Development
3. Finance, accounting and audit including executive and/or Board experience in financial accounting and reporting, risk and internal controls
4. Demonstrated capacity to contribute at Board level and prior experience as an independent non-executive director. The successful candidate should be a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors' Course (or equivalent).

SRA actively seeks diversity and gender equality in the recruitment of board directors.

Directors are remunerated by way of a fixed annual fee. Reasonable board-related expenses are met by the company. Directors will be appointed for a maximum term of up to three years.
